Poetry

Haiku

A silent evening
After a raged storm keeps quiet
By a blue glow worm.

Army helicopter
Whines day and night to suck fluid
Squeezing the helpless corpse.

Lulls the seasickness
The freedom of the seas as
The ships sink at sea.

Even a square meal found

In a walled freedom satisfies

The plasma at sea.

Flow on till get goal....

I flow on.... Then the inertia....

As I flow and flow...

Again tomorrow...

Again she at the lone stairs...

The silent heartbeats

NEKOPIRATI

Rose that came from her
Alas! I tore it, yet it kisses
Wounds I bring for me.

Had I kissed her hands!
Alas! The shadow of hers brings rain.
Oh, rain! I cannot cry.

Never will I see her.
Downward I go to the maze.
How can I meet her?

With a bandaged leg
A puppy looks at me in rain.
Good-bye! Dear beloved.

No battlefield in rain.
Slippery philosophy moves nowhere.
Sleeps the morning news.

The footprints of dawn!
Have I forgotten the old friends?
Thank you, nostalgia.
